

Banks should work harder to keep their current customers. If I decide to leave one bank for another, calls from the bank that I left only serve to annoy me. I don't want to be badgered by a bank that I left. I don't think it's a hardship for a bank to respect the will of the people in Wisconsin. Please leave the list alone. Thank you.